

Appel Health Services F & M College

SEXUAL HEALTH SERVICES

(Contraception and Sexually Transmitted Infection Evaluation and Testing)

SERVICES (NO CHARGE)

- consultation for contraception options (including abstinence)
- consultation for STI testing
- chlamydia and gonorrhea testing
- consultation for emergency contraception
- discussion about human papillomavirus (HPV) testing and vaccine
- gynecologic examinations
- diaphragm fitting
- pregnancy testing
- consultation for pregnancy choices
- abortion consultation, referral, and counseling including provision of informed consent required by PA state law
- post abortion follow up
- condoms
- Sheerglyde (dental) dams
- F & M's 24 hour confidential Sexual Assault Response Line 560-7311

COST OF TESTING

- PAP (thin prep) - $113 (can bill to insurance) $23 self-pay, special testing (HPV) additional
- HIV test - $17
- Gonorrhea culture (throat or anal) $11
- Syphilis - $6
- Herpes simplex virus (HSV) testing, culture - $26,; blood $57 ($27 + $30)

Other than PAP, the above costs are special reduced prices for students who prefer paying rather than submitting to insurance, though insurance can be billed if requested.

Information about local state sites for free STI testing provided on reverse side.

COST OF CONTRACEPTION (PAP testing is not required to begin hormonal contraception)

- birth control pills - $20/one pack (one month), $50/three packs of available oral contraceptives or Rx for the pharmacy is given
- NuvaRing - Rx given.
- Depo-Provera injection - lasts 3 months – approximately $65 (obtain at pharmacy)
- Emergency contraception (within 72 hours of intercourse) - $20 (Plan B), includes pregnancy test if necessary.

Over the counter emergency contraception (no Rx needed) is available after hours at 24 hour pharmacies at CVS at 1507 Lititz Pike The cost is $40 generic; One Step $50

COST OF HPV (HUMAN PAPILLOMA VIRUS) VACCINE (GARDISIL)

$133 per injection x 3, the second 2 months after the first and the third is 6 months after the first. If begun at home can be completed at AHS or can be started at AHS and completed at home.